Eryl Morton's life long fascination with plants and gardens inevitably led her into becoming a professional landscape designer more than thirty years ago, firstly in Britain and since 1984 in Victoria, B.C. Canada. Her practical knowledge and artistic flair working with plant materials has been recognized by many over the years. She has won numerous awards in British Columbia for her residential garden designs and show display gardens. Gardens designed by her have been featured in many horticultural publications, books and newspapers. Her contribution to the horticultural industry was recognized in 2004 when she was made "Member of the Year" by the British Columbia Landscape & Nursery Association.

Eryl has lectured frequently on garden related subjects in Canada and the USA and has helped organize and escort many specialist Garden Tours to fascinating destinations around the world.
